INTERSECTIONS OF ART/ACTIVISM/RESEARCH IN HIV/AIDS

Event: Intersections of Art/Activism/Research in HIV/AIDS

Date: Monday, June 21, 2021
Time: 1:30 PM EST
Location: Online

We welcome you to join us for a virtual event exploring the intersections of art, activism, and research in the context of HIV/AIDS. The event will feature a panel discussion with experts in the field, sharing insights and experiences on how creative and critical approaches can inform our understanding of the pandemic.

Panelists:
- Juan Herrero
  - Lead Artist in Residence
  - University of California, San Diego

- Dafydd Serialle
  - Curator and Artist
  - National AIDS Memorial

- Rubén Rosales
  - Professor
  - Visual AIDS Project

- Michael Cox
  - Researcher
  - University of California, San Diego

Panel Moderators:
- Rui Pereira
  - Artist
  - Visual AIDS Project

- Jen Afshar
  - Researcher
  - University of California, San Diego

The event is supported by ART 200, the ATD Awards, the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs, and the Visual AIDS Project.

Links & Updates
- Viewing Instructions
- How to Survive in Pisces

Spotlight: Corban Swan's An Inquisition on Liberation

In a heartfelt reflection on his recent exhibit at the Ferus Gallery, Corban Swan will highlight on our own Corban Swan: A Study in the Queer and Queer (2021), which was created with the help of the ATD community. The event will also feature a live performance by Corban Swan, opening up new avenues for understanding the power of art and activism.

Contact Us
- Ferus Gallery
- ATD Awards
- City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs
- Visual AIDS Project